Certified Automotive Parts Association to Appear on All Access with Andy Garcia

Kentwood, Mich. – May 27, 2026 – The Certified Automotive Parts Association (CAPA) will appear in an upcoming educational segment of All Access with Andy Garcia, a nationally distributed educational series focused on informing viewers about important industries and issues.

The segment takes viewers inside CAPA’s work as an independent standards organization, examining how certification supports quality, safety, and transparency in the automotive replacement parts market. Testing and technical expertise featured in the segment are provided by Intertek, a leading Total Quality Assurance provider to industries worldwide, which supports CAPA’s certification programs by providing independent services in accordance with CAPA standards. Through interviews and on-location footage, the program explores how comprehensive standards and testing help support repairability and informed decision-making.

Additional details, including viewing information, will be shared following release.

About CAPA

The Certified Automotive Parts Association, founded in 1987, is the nation’s only independent, non-profit certification organization for automotive crash parts whose sole purpose is to ensure that both consumers and the industry have the means to identify high-quality parts via the CAPA Quality Seal. CAPA is an ANSI-accredited standards developer for competitive crash repair parts. For more information see CAPAcertified.org.
